Rte. 173 Interchange on hold

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Better access to major Illinois roads plus possible access to public transportation will both be major factors in determining the growth of the Antioch area.

The Village of Antioch is interested in having future access to the Rockford metropolitan area and having a more direct hook-up with Interstate 39 which has become a major interstate artery between Minneapolis and Bloomington, Ill.

Last month, representatives of the Village of Antioch brought the need for better and improved access from major regional transportation facilities from the west before a meeting of the Lake County Economic Development Commission.

The village came out highly in favor of an interchange at Rtes. 173 and I-90/39, in the Rockford/Machesney Park area.

After the meeting, the economic development commission wrote to Tom Morsch of the Illinois State Toll Highway Authority, informing him that the commission "views this potential interchange as strategic in providing improved access to this sector of the region."

In the letter supporting Antioch's position, James Wilmot, chairman of the economic development commission, says, "As west Lake County draws several million visitors to the Ill. State Park, the Chain O'Lakes region and other Lake County destinations, an interchange at Hwy. 173 and I-90/39 could certainly help our most western communities as well as provide additional access to the general Rockford area."

Antioch's Community Dev. Dir. Don Davis, who spearheaded the request, says that Rte. 173 already serves as a major east-west route between the urbanized area from Chicago to Milwaukee, the Rockford metropolitan area and I-90/39.

"In traveling to Springfield, etc. right now, one has to take several back roads from Rte. 173 to get access to I-39," says Davis who predicts that Rte. 173 will be a major road in a future corridor to I-90 and I-15 carrying a heavy traffic load.

"I recommended an interchange at that spot on Rte. 173 years ago," said Morsch, adding that the municipal authorities in the Winnebago County area chose to have an interchange at east Riverside Blvd., several miles south of Rte. 173, instead. This interchange is now under construction.

Davis claims that local politics were involved in that interchange choice, adding that it is difficult to get to from Rte. 173.

Will there ever be an interchange off of Rte. 173 in the Machesney Park area?

"We always take heed of these recommendations. These interchanges are many years in the planning. An interchange at that point will have to make sense from a regional standpoint after an intense study shows that it will bring enough additional revenue to the authority since we are not funded by taxpayers' dollars," said Morsch.

Kelly scam filmed for television

The Village of Antioch will be seen on national tv next season with film crews for "Unsolved Mysteries," having been in town this week making a television segment on the disappearance of Woody Kelly.

Those close to Woody were interviewed concerning the biggest con-game ever perpetrated in the area in which Kelly swindled hundreds of people in a $6 million investment scam and disappeared from a boat in Lake Michigan in 1985.

Police make arms arrest

The Antioch Police, working with the Lake County Sheriff's Dept., set up an arms buy between an undercover county agent and Otis C. McCullum, 27, address unknown.

McCullum has been charged with selling two pistols and one knife to the agent.

An investigation showed that the guns and knife were stolen in a Fox Lake burglary by a 16-year-old Fox Lake youth. The 16-year-old was also arrested.

McCullum was charged with unlawful possession, use and sale of weapons and taken to Lake County jail.

Crash kills grandmother,
infant grandson injured

A 47-year-old Antioch woman was killed in a two-car accident at 2:40 p.m., on Saturday, on Deep Lake Rd., one-tenth of a mile south of Loon Lake Dr.

Pronounced dead after being airlifted to St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan, was Lynne Kirkegaard, 47, of Antioch.

According to the report from the Ill. State Police, Kirkegaard was driving north on Deep Lake Rd. when her car unexplanned veered across the center line, hitting a vehicle driven by Tom Koziol, 33, also of Antioch, head-on.

Kyle Kirkegaard, 20 months, a passenger in his grandmother's car was taken to St. Therese Trauma Satellite by the Antioch Rescue Squad.

Koziol was also taken to the Victory Hospital in Waukegan for treatment of injuries.

Best place to cool off

Though the Antioch Aqua Center is the swimming mecca of the village, Antioch's population of 5,000 almost triples in the summertime as vacationers head to their summer cottages and the cool beaches on the shores of Lake Catherine, Lake Marie, Cross Lake, Rock Lake and Channel Lake. — Photo by Gary LaVine

Geo-Karis: Stand against referendum ridiculous

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Since the U. S. Supreme Court dumped the pros and cons on the present abortion laws into the laps of the individual states last week, many state, city and area officials seem to be taking stands according to the letter of the law or individual rights instead of going with their own, previously publicly professed feeling on the subject.

Ill. Atty. Gen. Neal Hartigan, expected to be an anti-abortion advocate, says that "this is a woman's private affair."

Richard Daley, mayor of the City of Chicago, known to be against abortion, said, "The issue of abortion is like the relationship between a lawyer and his client. This has to do with the relationship between a doctor and his patient and should not be legislated."

State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion), who has come out against abortion except in extreme cases, wants to put the issue to an advisory referendum on the November 1990 ballot saying, "Neither I or other legislators should be the judges in this issue." She likens this issue to the vote on the death penalty which was put on a referendum.

Geo-Karis is being joined in her fight for the referendum by State Sens. Virginia B. Macdonald of Arlington Heights and Beverly Fawell of Glen Ellyn.

The senators want both pro-choice and anti-abortionists to work in unison on getting the referendum on the 1990 ballot.

In order to get a referendum on a ballot, petitions containing know the results will be against abortion."

Geo-Karis calls this stand against the referendum "ridiculous, I remember the deaths of both mother and baby caused by the back room abortions."

She also argues against constituency is divided on the issue."

Along with urging immediate legislation against abortion, the members of Lake County Right To Life are also urging further laws be passed calling for parents to stop a woman from having their baby aborted.

Other pro-choice advocates claim that legislation such as being called for by anti-abortionists will cost more lives than the abortion laws do now because, in turning the clock back to the 1950's when thousands of women put their lives on the line in getting illegal abortions, many died along with their babies.

"The anti-abortionists' stand that waiting to put the abortion issue on a November 1990 referendum will cost more dead babies, is ridiculous! I remember the back room abortions when both baby and mother died," said State Sen Adeline Geo-Karis.

signatures of 10 percent of the state's registered voter, asking for the referendum, must be gathered by May of 1990.

Anti-abortion leaders, Bonnie Quirk, president of the Lake County Right To Life group and Carol Walsh, member of that group, are calling for a lot of letter writing on what they call "The issue of the right to kill," which should and can be legislated against like other kinds of "murder" already are.

State Rep. Mary Grace Stearns (D-Highland Park), who is pro choice, expects a lot of bad and hot legislative blood to flow on this issue down in the state capitol.

The main reason that Quirk and her allies are against the referendum is that "many more babies will die in the year-and-one-half it will take to get the results of a referendum when they feel "we already be told of a minor daughter's pregnancy, giving them a voice in any possible abortion and also laws giving fathers the right

Emmons to rerun referendums on November 1989 ballot

In last week's Antioch News-Reporter, decisions made at the Emmons Grade School Board meeting in June were reported as decisions made by the Grass Lake School Board.

Decisions made by the Emmons Grade School Board at its June meeting include:

— the re-running of referendums on the education rate increase up to .49 and a $1.6 building expansion in the November election. Both referendums were narrowly defeated in the April election. The impending development of subdivisions in the school district brought this approval about.

— appointed a budget committee of John Petkus and Pam Pierson.

for perfect attendance.

— because the referenda did not pass,

Biel plays Henry V

Andrew Biel, drama graduate from Illinois State University, took to the Illinois Shakespeare Festival stage in the title role of "Henry V," spiritually enforced by his own ancestors who fought in the Battle of Agincourt for King Henry. Biel, whose great-great grandfather was an Entwhistle, says that the fact that Sir Bertine Entwhistle fought in that French village gave him a special tie to the role.

Holiday weekend was busy one in Antioch

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380

What did you say? You had nothing to do over the Fourth of July weekend? I say hogwash!! No one can complain about boredom this past holiday weekend in Antioch, thanks to the chamber of commerce. For instance, Saturday, July 1, was the Miss Antioch Contest, and it was quite a contest. The winner of the 1989 Miss Antioch title and crown was Kimberly Pankauskas. The runner-up was Kelly Doyle, while bubbly Tonya Tointon won the honor of Miss Congeniality. There were 10 pretty young women competing for this title. So you can see the judges had their jobs cut out for them. On Sunday, July 2, there were 13 pretty little ladies competing for the title of Little Miss Antioch. I was on hand for this competition, and when all the Little Miss hopefuls paraded out on stage, I secretly thanked God that I was not one of the judges. Just how do you decide which interview was the best, while smile or hair style was the prettiest, which casual outfit was the cutest, which party dress was the most eloquent, and which little girl answered her particular question in the most special way. Each and every one of those pretty little ones deserved the title and all for different reasons. Nevertheless, the judges had a task to perform and somehow or other they were able to pick a winner. So for the next year, Jamie Jorgenson will be reigning over Antioch as Little Miss Antioch. Jamie is a second grade student at Antioch

Grade School, and I am sure our town will be well represented by her. The Lizard and readers.

Then on the Fourth of July itself, the festivities began with a terrific parade at 10 a.m., and there were continuous activities held at Williams Park all day long. The grand finale of the day was the beautiful fireworks display at the park. Actually, the parade was open to anyone who was interested. For a fleeting moment, I toyed with the idea of riding down Main St. on a Honda scooter bearing the logo "Remember to Call the Lizard!" However, not even I could go through with this. Somehow the sight of me on that scooter advertising this column was too much to bear, so I passed up a golden opportunity to have my phone ringing off the hook with newsy tidbits. Maybe I'll have the courage to participate next year. It would be a lot easier if about one-half dozen of my "so-called" friends went along with me.

PM&L

The next scheduled production of our own PM&L Theater is "Li'l Abner." The opening night is July 28. The usual champagne party will be held after the opening night performance. "Li'l Abner" will run for three weekends. The director is Larry Bersie. Steven Biel of Antioch has the title role, and Melody Preston of Ingleside is Daisy Mae. For reservations, call (312)395-3055, and for more detailed show times, etc., look elsewhere in this paper.

Opportunity knocks

They say when opportunity knocks that we all must answer the call. This is exactly what Debbie Beno has done. Debbie is a teacher at Emmons Grade School, and she has taken advantage of an opportunity to teach in a foreign country for two years. Debbie is leaving Emmons temporarily to teach at the American Community School in Athens, Greece. Debbie is taking advantage of this opportunity to enhance her own teaching skills with this interesting experience. When she returns to Emmons, just think of all the added knowledge she will be able to share with her students. Good luck in this new venture, Debbie, and when you return remember to call us with all of your special tidbits about the people and students in Greece.

4-H award winners

I'd like to give special mention to some 4-H Club award winners. The Univ. of Illinois granted state awards to five Lake County 4-H youths. The following people won the awards and have earned a trip to the National 4-H Congress: Cathy Enz of Gurnee for arts and crafts; Tony Salamone of Park for dog care and training; Beth Willis of McHenry for achievement; Lenny Enz of Gurnee for arts, crafts and wood science; and Marja-Leena Aaltonen of Gurnee for food nutrition. Congratulations to you all, and have fun on your trip to the National 4-H Congress.

On June 30 13 Lake County 4-H Clubs participated in "Community Beautification Day." The clubs planted a variety of flowers in public areas, such as libraries, village halls, fire houses and main streets. Fifty flats of flowers were donated by various Lake County garden centers and greenhouses. The participating clubs earned community service credit and felt civic pride in making their communities "blossom." incidentally, the 4-H program is open to all youths between the ages of eight and 19. For more information about this worthwhile program, call (312)223-8629.

Etc., etc., etc.

Can you believe I almost forgot to give mention to area residents celebrating birthdays in July? Happy birthday to all of the following people from Lizard and readers: Deanna Olenick, Dale Gade, Jenny Santiemmo, Lisa Falcone, Jackie Sherwood and little Frankie Deates. It is a special birthday for Frankie, as he will be turning one year old. Also, anniversary wishes are in order for Dick and Mary Marsich on July 29. Hope you all have fun on these special days.

Bear with me once again while I expound on the virtues of Eagle River, Wisc., as a vacation choice. My husband, son and I spent a wonderfully relaxing vacation week at our northern Wisconsin home. The weather was ideal and the fish were cooperating. We brought back a freezer full of bass, northern, muskie and trout. You haven't lived until you've tasted a trout prepared on a smoker. It was delicious. The Eagle River area boasts a chain of 28 beautiful lakes. There are many motels and resorts and marinas in the area and several nice campgrounds. The area is literally full of many types of restaurants, all serving delicious meals at reasonable prices. Town is dotted with gift shops, souvenir shops, candy stores, antique photo galleries and amusements. In the winter, there is nary a person to be seen on the town sidewalks. This time of year, you can't see the sidewalks because they are covered with tourists.

There are fairgrounds, golf courses, tennis courts, stock car race tracks, Indian bingo casinos and riding stables in and around town. Close by, one can visit animal farms, zoos, museums. Throughout the year the chamber hosts a number of added attractions such as arts and crafts shows, boat parades, holiday parades, flea markets, circuses, canoe and kayak races, lumberjack shows, music festivals, outdoor plays, auto shows, antique shows, fishing seminars, auctions, etc. It is truly a nice place to vacation, with something for everyone to do. If snowmobiling is your thing, you haven't seen anything until you experience the beauty of the hundreds of miles of beautifully groomed trails in and around the Eagle River area.

That's it. It's hot, and I am going in the pool. Call me with your tidbits. Don't work too hard in this heat.

FOOT FACTS From The FOOT DOCTOR

Dr. Grill J. Winters & Assoc.

Specializing in Reconstructive Foot & Ankle Surgery

MORTON'S NEUROMA

A pinched nerve in the front of the foot, usually between the third and fourth toes can be a torment, because the problem is deep in the foot there is usually no visible sign. There are however a number of clues that lead to a diagnosis of a neuroma.

1. Burning in the ball of the foot.
2. The feeling of walking on a stone or marble.
3. Numbness or tingling in the affected toes.
4. A sudden sharp pain in the forefoot that makes one want to remove the shoe and rub the foot.
5. Inability to be comfortable in most any shoe.

LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS

I found out what a small world we live in last week after meeting Ray Jennsen, a well-known, retired businessman from Antioch and 40-year resident of Lake Villa, in a swimming pool in sunny Florida.

Now a resident of the condominium complex at which I was staying in Venice Beach, Jennsen was pretty surprised when, at his request, I narrowed my answer to his question of where do I live, from "the Chicago area" to "Gurnee."

I want to express the hope that the person who stole our new flag from our flag pole on July 9 enjoys it.

Jennsen lives with his brother-in-law, Ernie Erickson, on the fifth floor of the Venice beachfront condominium complex, Chateaugay. The view out his front window is of Donna Bay and the Intercoastal Waterway. From the back, he can see for miles across the Gulf of Mexico.

On Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, Jennsen plays golf at the Jakaranda Country Club. He relaxes the rest of the week by swimming in the pool and in the gulf at Venice beach, well-Jennsen also spends time visiting with Dick and Marge Erickson, the original owners of Erickson's Sewing Center on Lake St. The Ericksons live just a few buildings down the beach from him.

Jennsen, who has lived in Florida for 17 years—11 in Homestead and six in Venice—says the gorgeous weather is what most attracts him to life in Florida.

"Really what I like out here is you can go outside everyday. There isn't a day that you can't go out and enjoy it," Jennsen said adding that he is used to the summer heat.

Although Jennsen said it's always nice to go home, he said he doesn't miss much about the Midwest except his family. His daughter, Diane Pleviak, her husband, Denis, and their five children live in New Holstein, Wis. where Denis practices medicine. Jennsen's wife, Elizabeth, passed away last October.

Historical thanks

Editor:

As fundraising chairman for the Lakes Region Historical Society, I want to thank you for giving us so much support in your newspapers.

We were open July 4 for Independence Day, and July 8 and 9 for our second annual book sale.

During these three days 1,000 people passed through our "old museum."

In the past few years the citizens of Antioch and surrounding area have donated more than $100,000 to restore our museum, located at Depot and Main Sts. in Antioch.

We are fortunate that those of us who wish to preserve our local history have a newspaper publisher like yourself, who also wishes to preserve our heritage. "There is history in all men's lives."

Expanding public golf Letters To The Editor

With golf continuing to grow in popularity, it is encouraging to see the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. moving ahead to obtain bids for construction of an additional nine holes at Countryside Golf Course west of Mundelein. The district owns plenty of land in the area so the plan to add an additional nine holes in the future appears sound to make a grand total of 36 holes.

Countryside and the county's other Forest Preserve course, Brae Loch Golf Course in the center of the county at Gages lake, have proved to be financial successes. With the future bright, it's a wonder Forest Preserve Dist. commissioners aren't looking at other sites around the county for more golfing sites. Considering the public's appetite for golf, golf courses make an excellent use of open space.

Both Countryside and Brae Loch are pretty well maxed out under present conditions. Both courses employ permanent tee time policies for weekends. Week day play on a "first come" basis results in frequent 45 minute waits. Players experienced waiting times of up to three hours for the recent July 4 weekend.

Because of extensive drainage problems, experts have ruled out Brae Loch for expansion beyond the present 18 hole layout. This paves the way for location on Rte. 45 of the proposed Lake County Cultural Arts Center and still will leave plenty of room for reconfiguration of the course and construction of a much needed large storm water retention basin.

Apparently, the golf course committee headed by County Board Dist. 2 Rep. Audrey Nixon of North Chicago won't have to choose between golf and culture at Brae Loch. They can have both.

Advancing recycling

Townships have yet another role to play in the local governmental scheme in new legislation passed by both the House and Senate that is awaiting the governor's signature.

The law permits township boards to enter into agreements with private for-profit companies to carry out recycling programs. The bill paving the way for recycling in unincorporated areas was sponsored by State Rep. Virginia Frederick (R-Lake Forest).

Frederick called the measure a "common sense" bill because of the shortage of landfills in Illinois and the growing amount of reusable trash that gets buried every day.

We are aware of one Lake County township that likely will make use of the new law immediately. Wauconda Twp. has been looking at the feasibility of recycling in unincorporated areas to complement recycling efforts in the villages of Wauconda and Island Lake. That's exactly what the Frederick bill was intended to do, so it will be interesting to see if Wauconda will be the bellwether township.

In a related bill, Frederick won passage of a measure to keep landfill refuse in landfills. A new law will require garbage trucks leaving landfills in counties of more than 275,000 population to be cleaned of mud, garbage and other landfill site material. Presumably, the trucks will be hosed down before taking to the highway. That makes sense, too.

Question extension

Editor:

We were pleased to learn that the Village of Libertyville is opposing the extension of Buffalo Grove Rd. from Rte. 83 to Golf. Trustees Shulien and Madole are concerned that the county is putting a four lane road through the property of others and dumping it onto Garfield, a residential area.

We agree with those concerns. We who live in the northwest section of Libertyville Twp. are very concerned about the extension of Butterfield Rd. north past Rte. 137, pushing through homeowners' properties in our neighborhood and dumping traffic on lovely, rural, home lined Casey Rd.

What we don't understand is: Why does the village reject the county proposal for Buffalo Grove extension, but think the Butterfield Rd. extension is just fine?

fee" every year. That takes newcomers to this state by surprise, as they have never heard of such a thing.

Finally, people who do not believe in public education to begin with should not be nitpicking at the day-to-day budget and effort of those who are trying hard to improve their community's schools. Their battle should be removed to some other arena, the state legislature, the governor or, perhaps, the Dark Ages.

Time to buy savannah

Editor:

Lake County residents should be extremely pleased by the Lake County Board's recent decision to designate the Highland Park Prairie-Savannah for acquisition and preservation pending appraisal. The county board agreed with local conservationists that this extremely fragile remnant of native Illinois prairie and woodlands was worthy of preservation. It was also gratifying to see the board concurrently reject Red Seal Development Co.'s allegations that the property was too expensive for public purchase and that the developer's plan to build 119 homes would actually enhance the quality of the prairie.

For nearly one year, Lake County conservationists have been requesting forest preserve acquisition of the Highland Park Prairie-Savannah. The conservationists and concerned citizens have recognized the environmental quality of the woodland savannah-prairie well before Red Seal had any interest in the property. The preservation of the Highland Park Prairie-Savannah has been endorsed by the Open Lands Project, the Morton Arboretum, the Audubon Society and many other respected environmental groups. Furthermore, the City of Highland Park has even offered to donate its 10 acres of adjacent property for a forest preserve acquisition. Clearly, the time is right for the county board to vote to purchase the Highland Park Prairie-Savannah.

Viewpoint

U.S. flag code

by BILL SCHROEDER

Eddie Biskey spent part of his youth in Korea—like a lot of other middle aged guys around here. Eddie isn't ashamed to admit that a good bit of the time in Korea he was afraid—"afraid of being killed or wounded." But that didn't stop him from doing his job or standing up for his country.

Short and muscular, Biskey came home in one piece. Eddie didn't learn what it was like to get banged up until suffering dozens of lacerations on his back when run over by a motorboat in a water skiing accident.

One thing about the construction man for Northern Illinois Gas—he couples respect for his country with a long memory. That brings us to the present, where Eddie is upset about the hullabaloo over desecration of the American flag. And he's steamed plenty, like most veterans, about the U.S. Supreme Court decision permitting flag trampling as a First Amendment right.

"The whole thing about the flag stinks. And it's all no unnecessary. There's already a federal statute on the books prohibiting desecration of the flag. The Supreme Court didn't have to get involved," Biskey declared.

in the books,

Eddie is right on the money. The ex-GI produced correspondence from the U.S. Dept. of Justice he has saved since 1970 when he wrote Washington about a flag incident. An assistant attorney general at that time described the federal flag desecration statute, effective July 5, 1968, providing for a fine of not more than $1,000, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, for "whoever knowingly casts contempt upon any flag of the United States by publicly mutilating, defacing, desecrating, burning, or trampling upon it."

Biskey's correspondence indicated that each of the 50 states has a flag desecration statute, and that the intent of Congress was not to deprive the states of jurisdiction.

"That says it all as far as I'm concerned," Biskey remarked.

What is left unsaid is what's been happening since 1968. The enforcement of the little-known code could have prevented a lot of trouble and headed off the anguish of veterans who laid their lives on the line for what the American flag symbolizes.

If you'd like to look up the flag

The upcoming Wauconda Cornfest has been held for more than few years by the Wauconda Republican Assn. at Committeeman Howard Bieze's Callahan Rd. farm.

The so-called Committee of Six, which split from the ranks

Howard Bieze

Walter Hornberger

of GOP Twp. Chairman Jim Eshenbach and followers, march to their own drummer. So much so, the Lake County Republican Federation doesn't recognize the upcoming event. It won't even allow use of the GOP logo in publicizing the Cornfest. "It's simply not a party by, for, with or through the party," said county GOP Chairman Bob Neal.

Bieze thinks otherwise. He promotes. Last year half the proceeds went to the Wauconda Historical Society. That turned out to be $910.

"It's an event," said another Wauconda Twp. Republican precinct committeeman, Fred Bigham. He says the Cornfest is worth attending "if you happen to like beer, horseshoes and corn on the cob."

Mundelein Police Chief Wallace Frasier found out what it was like to be on the other side of the fence.

He was a juror last month. Two of those days were spent in a Waukegan juror pool where he almost got called for a case. But he was eliminated because of his occupation. The other three days he called in twice a day to see if he was needed. For all of that he earned $12.50 a day plus mileage. There is no such thing as being excused by reason of a job or obligation.

"It was interesting," Frasier said about sitting next to and talking with others in the pool. No one knew he was the No. 1 policeman in Mundelein.

Oh yes, most people believe that if they don't vote they won't be picked for jury duty. Don't believe a word of it, Frasier said. Driver's license numbers are used today to pick jurors.

Libertyville High School is drug free! Who says? The U.S. Department of Education and President George Bush, who presented a plaque and special flag to school representatives in June.

Theoretically, no one gets high at Libertyville High. That's because of the many in-school and outside anti-drug programs and committees.

But alas, the Wildcats are no better or worse than any other students across Illinois or the U.S. "I don't think a school in the land is truly drug free," said Principal Walter Hornberger. "Our honor was for trying harder."

Island Lake is fast becoming famous for its July Fourth fireworks display. This year's event drew a record crowd.

An estimated 1,200 cars pulled into Tower Park—at $5 each. Traffic was backed up to Rte. 12 and Rte. 176. Five hundred cars were turned away.

What happened to turn a traditional money-losing event into such a phenomenal success?

"We promoted," said GOP precinct committeeman Fred Bigham, a member of the sponsoring Lions Club. "I distributed flyers everywhere."

Those attending weren't disappointed by the program that cost $15,000 to stage. There was two hours of pyrotechnics. Capping off the program was an experimental space spectacular. It was a 16-inch, nine-foot rocket launched from a huge pipe buried in the ground. It soared 1,500 feet into the air, exploding in a shower of glitter and resounding booms that had spectators on their feet.

Next year's display will be even more spectacular, Bigham promises. The fireworks company is bringing in a 36-inch diameter rocket. If you want to set off one of these in your backyard, the price starts at $450.

For months Dist. 6 County Board member Bruce Hansen has been bragging about his attendance at committee meetings. This comes after two years of truancy from many such meetings by the Zion High School history teacher.

Hansen has almost perfect attendance this year. As chairman of the Legislative Committee he has set meetings for Mondays at 3 p.m. twice a month in the county building. That way he can catch them on his way home to Lake Zurich.

Often Hansen and Debbie Halas of Waukegan are among the few to show up. Ninety percent of the time there is no quorum, said Robert Neal, a member of the committee. Others are Richard Price, Jim Fields and Jim LaBelle.

"As far as I am concerned this body cannot legally conduct some of the business it is handling," Neal said. "The meetings are set for the convenience of one member, not the majority of the committee."

Russ Christian, the new Avon Twp. supervisor, says things are just as financially bleak this week as last month.

He blames former Sup. Norman Geary for leaving him holding the bag with a skimpy 1989-90 budget. Christian, who prides himself in being fiscally astute, says there is no way to avoid a tax increase. This most likely will begin by issuing tax anticipation warrants next winter when the township begins running out of money prior to spring tax receipts.

Geary said he could have lived with the budget by limiting township travel and general belt tightening.

Who's right and who's wrong will become known next spring.

Oh yes, Christian says he is "not kicking little old ladies out of Winchester House," as Geary implied. "There still are 36 Avon Twp. residents there," the new supervisor said. "The count was something like 38 when I took office in April. Avon is entitled to 23 residents."

Lake County At A Glance

Seniors hopeful

LAKE ZURICH—Twp. still hopes to build a senior housing facility despite a less than enthusiastic response from Lake Zurich village officials. Grever said Ela Twp.'s chances are increased because there are only a total of 19 HUD fund applicants for this area although over 60 were predicted. Five or six of these applications will be granted funds. "It seems to increase our odds a little bit," he said. Even without HUD funds, there is still hope for the project. Grever said the township is exploring other ways to obtain senior housing. "We have some wheels turning in other directions," he said.

Bans skateboards

ISLAND LAKE—An ordinance banning skateboard riders from Island Lake's business areas was the result of a contract store owners requested to police. In the contract, Chief Eugene Bach said, the store owners requested that police patrol the area, issuing citations for parking violations and chasing away loiterers, both of which Bach said the police have already been doing. What was new to them was the request to keep out skateboarders and bicyclists, which Village Trustee Douglas Kelder is now drafting into an ordinance.

Burning odor

LINDENHURST—Village residents appeared Monday before the Lindenhurst Board of Trustees asking them to solve the problem of a burning odor that has been detected virtually everywhere in the town. Chief of Police Gary Kupsak said his department has received complaints of the smell that is burning the eyes, noses and throats of many people, usually at night. A community service officer investigated the problem, but could not find any illegal burning going on in village limits. The officer reported that the odor seemed to be coming from the Millburn area. The board told residents to call the police department any time they noticed the smell.

Road key issue

GURNEE—Plans for extension of a highway through the proposed Lexington Homes subdivision in Gurnee has delayed a recommendation on the development. John Sloan, a Mundelein attorney representing Lexington Homes, said the Lake County Dept. of Transportation is seeking a 45 MPH highway as a north-south collector on the 446 acre development. How Lexington officials plan on meeting the desires of the county was a major point of discussion during the

Graham letters back in township offices

A lawsuit by Libertyville Twp. Sup. Ralph Swank Jr. against the former supervisor ended July 10 when documents removed from the office in April were returned.

Lake County Board member and former Libertyville Twp. Sup. F.T. "Mike" Graham two days before signed an affidavit saying he had turned over all township books, papers and records in his possession that Swank wanted.

Graham took these in April when he lost his re-election bid to Swank, saying he thought these were personal documents. They were subsequently transferred to the office of Graham's Chicago attorney, Michael Nash. Graham said he felt entitled to the documents after 20 years in office, particularly since many items were of a personal nature.

Withholds pay

LAKE VILLA—The tax assessor in Lake Villa Twp. will not be getting his paycheck this week. The township board motioned to withhold the check from Mike Karasinski until he can prove that he is doing his job. Karasinski will be leaving office at the end of this year and has allegedly not been showing up at work, and has not been returning the phone calls of residents with certificates of error. The residents will have to pay their tax bills in September, whether or not they are correct, if Karasinski does not rectify the problems. Twp. Supv. Sue Hanson said the employees of the tax assessment office have not had their time cards signed by Karasinski for a number of weeks and that she has been forced into taking the responsibility. West Miltmore resident Bruce Padbury told the board he would be glad to raise the money to pay legal fees if the matter had to be settled in court.

Talk gun noise

WAUKEGAN—Members of the citizens group Ban the Abusive Noise of Guns (BANG) took their concerns about noise at Northbrook Sports Club to the Lake County Health Dept. Three representatives of the Hainesville citizens group met with Gregorio Millan, administrative engineer with the Health Dept.'s Division of Environmental Health Monday in Waukegan. The gun club neighbors came armed with a tape recording of the gun club noise. They were seeking to have the county health department enforce its nuisance ordinance against the gun club.

Gurnee Mills groundbreaking

GURNEE—More than 300 national, state and local dignitaries are expected to attend groundbreaking ceremonies for the value-oriented shopping center Gurnee Mills July 19. The ceremony will take place off Rte. 132 at 11 a.m. Gurnee Mills is being developed by Western Development Corp. of Washington, D.C.

Solid waste meeting

WARREN TWP.—Warren Twp. residents will be able to learn the latest on the Lake County Solid Waste Planning Agency strategies when William Barron, Lake County assistant administrator and Jeanne Becker, consultant, give a presentation July 20. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Warren Twp. Center.

Water ordinance

ANTIOCH—Lawn sprinkling is still being restricted in the Village of Antioch because of the low water table. Signs have been put up all over the village and at its outskirts telling residents that lawn sprinkling is restricted to between the hours of 7 and 10 a.m. and 6 and 9 p.m. Violators, many of whom have already been reported to village officials, will be visited by a police officer. Village officials hope to enforce the ordinance without the use of heavy fines.

July is ice cream month

July is National Ice Cream Month and the perfect time to serve the world's favorite dessert since the origin of ice cream in 62 AD. In 1553 Catherine DeMedici ordered 34 flavors for her marriage to King Henry II; Louise XIV's chef was known for his exotic frozen desserts and strawberry ice cream was the highlight of James Madison's inaugural ball. Summertime entertaining calls for ice cream specialties like the recipes below.

'Personals' offers night out that is full of laughs

by TOM WITOM

In another era, the typical newspaper personal ad featured someone's thank-you message to St. Anthony for favors granted or sought the whereabouts of missing relatives or witnesses to accidents.

Now, of course, the forum is quite different: a billboard for uniting would-be mates--or at least temporary companions.

The off-Broadway musical comedy "Personals," now playing in an open run at the cozy second stage of the new Halsted Theater Center in Chicago, adds a new dimension to eternal boy-meets-girl quest.

A sprightly six-member cast charmingly takes its audience on a two-hour journey, in some 15 songs that recall the joys and pain of being single in the '80s. No bimbos and no bozos need reply, their ads suggest; but the oddballs surface anyway, as in real life.

The biggest laughs come from skits involving Dan she calls in the middle of the night to say "hello."

"Moving in with Linda" is a slick piece that graphically illustrates the baggage of past relationships one carries. "Second Grade," is a number in which the male cast members, Matt McDonald, Todd Foland and Ferretti, grow wistful for their fleeing youth.

Directed by Calvin MacLean, "Personals" is from a book and lyrics by David Crane, Scott Friedman and Marta Kauffman. It's a well-paced production, loosely hung together. The humor is light and the music breezy. So what if the lyrics are forgettable and the material lacking in great philosophic insights. It's a pleasant bit of theater for a summer night's out.

Critics Choice

Ferretti as the earnest student trying to learn the art of developing a relationship from a how-to cassette and Chris Banholzer as she makes video dating auditions, playing a withdrawn loser in one bit and a macho bisexual in another.

Mary Hager distills the feeling of loneliness in a touching song "Michael" directed at her ex-husband, whom

Pier Club, dining in yacht-club atmosphere

by GLORIA DAVIS

Entertainment Editor

Pier Place, on the shores of Pistakee Lake in Fox Lake, is a fun conglomerate owned by entrepreneur Mel Boldt, who is the president of the Fox Lake Chamber of Commerce.

This is where one can find the Pier Club, casual lakeside dining at its best; Carmen's Veranda, a place for fun and libation; the Blue Heron Art Gallery with its sculptured gardens; the Maui Sun Arcade, Candy Creations, Roaming Eyes Apparel and On the Boardwalk.

The extra special feature is the floating bandshell that live music emanates from on weekends for the popular block parties. The Pier Club is managed by Mathews Associates out of Schaumburg.

Summertime has Pier Club diners appreciating the special ice cream drinks or the frozen fruit margueritas and daiquiris that are the bartenders' forte.

Dining at the Pier Club is done in a casual yacht-club atmosphere, with the waiters and waitresses wearing brightly flowered shirts and white skirts and shorts, adding to the seaside aura, while they serve the fresh seafood and cedar pork chops, among the favorite items on the varied menu.

The Pier Club is open, Mondays through Thursdays, from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., on Friday and Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m., with the lounge open until 1 a.m.

A popular Sunday brunch is served from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and the dinner hour lasts until 10 p.m.

Happy Hour, from 4 to 7 p.m., from Monday through Thursday, draws the crowds to the bar during the week.

The seating capacity of this well-known nautical food spa is approximately 145 people with reservations for eight or more people recommended on the weekends.

Prate stresses quality, not quantity

by BRENT KILLACKY
Lakeland Newspapers

Americans have a funny tendency. They will search for the lowest price at all costs (no pun intended). In that search, they are willing to give up the most important thing for a lower dollar sign - quality.

But quality is one thing that Michael A. Prate Inc. Roofing Contractors is not willing to give up. "Pay once for quality," is a company motto.

Michael Prate, the president and founder of the company, said that people call up his business all the time asking for a bid. When they found that the bid was a little bit higher than others, they would go to the other roofing contractors. But three or four months later they could call again, this time asking to get their roof repaired.

"It comes full cycle," Prate said. "It's better to do it right the first time," he added.

Michael A. Prate, Inc. started in 1976 as a home-based operation with Prate and a friend.

"I bounced around working for other so-called roofing contractors and nobody ran their business the way I thought the (roofing) business should be run," Prate said.

"I started my company with a personal commitment to treat all customers and employees as I expect to be treated," Prate states in a brochure.

The business prospered and eventually expanded into its present two story office and shop facility located at 368 W. Liberty St. in Wauconda.

Prate attributes the company's success to referrals and repeat business. This success has given the business a chance to grow; and Michael A. Prate, Inc. now serves customers in a 50-mile radius.

Did Michael Prate expect this much growth in so little time?

"I had never envisioned a size of any type or any specific goals. I just know that if I used a good quality material and delivered a consistent finished product of high caliber that I'd always have work," Prate said.

Michael A. Prate, Inc. is a full service roofing contractor that specializes in shingle roofs, cedar roofs, flat roofs, exterior sheet metal and gutters. The company works in the commercial, industrial and residential areas of the roofing business.

Prate said, "With the new construction that's been going on, we have been very strong in the new market, and in the existing market we have also been strong."

Michael A. Prate, Inc. has a special relationship with its employees that helps bring about quality.

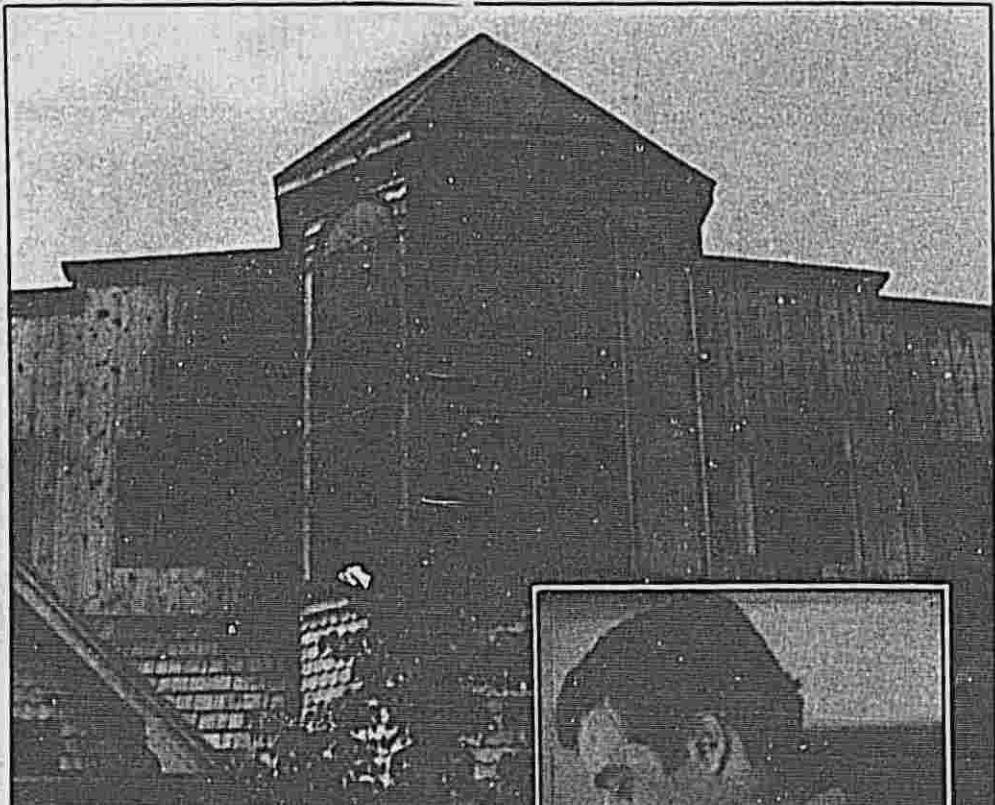

"They can attain as much individual growth as they want to achieve," Prate said.

"Each employee is chosen on the basis of his or her individual expertise. This ever expanding base of knowledge and expertise keeps the company current with the newest techniques of modern roofing and business management," a company brochure states.

Prate gave a warning about the roofing industry. "It's all to easy for just anyone to call himself a roofing contractor."

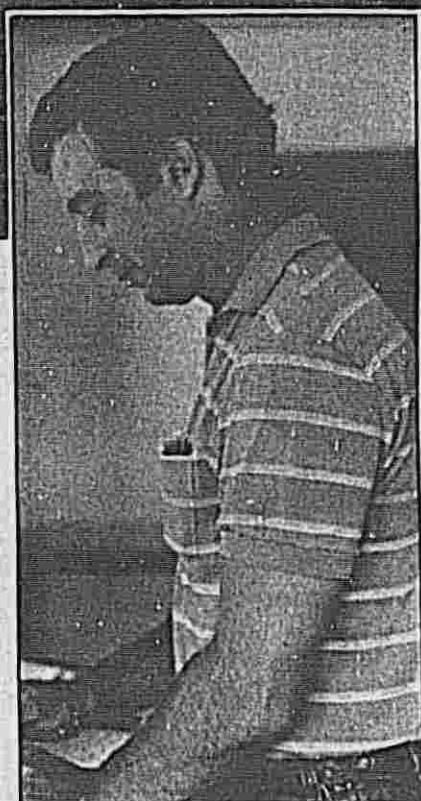

But Prate added, "You do get what you pay for."

Success in the company was attained because we "deliver no less than what I would personally accept, and I always have competent, qualified people," Prate said.

Quality roofing

Michael Prate, owner of Michael A. Prate Inc. Roofing Contractors, working at one of his drafting tables, (inset) refuses to give up quality in search of lower dollar signs. Whether servicing commercial or residential clients, he believes in delivering "no less than what I would personally accept..." in his specialty shingle, cedar and flat roof and exterior sheet metal and gutters. His renovated office, above, at 368 W. Liberty (Rte. 176) in Wauconda, is an attention-getting example of his quality work, with its turrets, spiral staircase and colorful stained-glass features.—Photo by Caron Krebs

Groundbreaking nearing for Gurnee Mills site

More than 300 national, state and local dignitaries are expected to attend groundbreaking ceremonies for the value-oriented shopping center Gurnee Mills July 19. The ceremony will take place off Rte. 132 at 11 a.m. Gurnee Mills is being developed by Western Development Corp. of Washington, D.C.

"We (WDC) are very excited about this event. Our team has worked long and hard on Gurnee Mills and we intend to set the tone for the whole project with this special groundbreaking," Project Dir. Steve Jacobsen said.

Gurnee officials taking a progress tour Saturday passed by berthing work already done on the 300 plus acre site.

Gurnee Admin. James Hayner said the berthing "gives you a flavor of Gurnee Mills".

The 12 foot high berthing includes landscaping.

Sears, Far-Mor Reading China and Glass and 49th St. Galeria, an entertainment concern, have signed initial leases with Gurnee Mills, Hayner said. Letters of intent are pending on six others, Hayner said.

The work done to date on the site has won over previous critics.

The mall will be the fourth generation of the mills concept. Gurnee village officials toured the Franklin Mills site in Philadelphia and came away with favorable views.

Gurnee is hoping to receive some $5 million annually in sales tax revenue from Gurnee Mills.

According to an October, 1988 fiscal impact study report done by Lane Kendig, the county is expecting $1.6 million a year from Gurnee Mills, Woodland Dist. $0.1.3 million and Warren Twp. High School $1.18 million.

Rte. 132 and Hunt Club Rd. will be signalized and WDC will provide some $4 million in road improvements throughout a region of Lake County affected by Gurnee Mills.

Builders turn to HOW for customer service

Smaller builders having customer service problems are finding solutions through the Home Owners Warranty (HOW) 10-year builder protection plan, according to HOW.

"It's one-step shopping," says Bob Verbic, president of HOW of Greater Chicago and first vice president, director of builder services of Coldwell Banker. "They find it helps their credibility, their efficiency and their bottom line. HOW helps builders take care of some of the more nagging customer service problems."

HOW's 10-year warranty and insurance plan takes the guesswork out of what the builders' and owners' responsibilities are for new home maintenance and repairs. "It's all there in writing in the HOW builder's warranty," says Verbic.

Builders use the program, Verbic says, because it gives them the systems and the back-up to resolve customer disputes quickly and equitably. "It lets builders get back to the business of building," says Verbic.

According to Verbic, this is primarily due to HOW's expedited dispute settlement program for resolving complaints. The program calls for the use of an independent arbitrator to resolve disputes before going to court. Most of the cases using this procedure are resolved in an average of 40 days.

"The credibility that this settlement procedure gives to a builder is immeasurable."

College offering classes

The College of Lake County has developed a schedule of credit and on-credit classes that are specifically directed toward working adults interested in career and professional development.

Conveniently scheduled before or after regular work hours, the 25 courses offered cover a range of topics appropriate for anyone from clerical staff to supervisors interested in improving their job skills or job prospects. Keyboarding for Computers, Introduction to Business, Accounting Procedures I, Business Communications and Elements of Supervision are examples of classes offered.

able," Verbic said. "It lets homeowners know that they have someone to turn to if they have a disagreement over warranty coverage with the builder."

Jack Sorenson, with U.S. Shelter, and immediate past president of Home Builders Assn. of Greater Chicago and second charter member of HOW Nation, agrees.

"We say that we're a company concerned about follow through, service and quality," said Sorenson. "Having HOW reassures the customer of that and backs up what we say. It's written proof that we are dedicated to doing the job right."

HOW also offers builders a number of customer service advantages, including brochures and videos on home maintenance for consumers, tips on walk-throughs, and videos for builders on customer service and complaint avoidance.

"Being a HOW builder will increase customer confidence in you," says Verbic. "HOW screens its builders for financial stability, customer service and for technical competence in home building. When it comes to establishing your identity as a builder who cares about customers, HOW is a very important factor."

HOW is the only new home warranty and insurance program endorsed by the National Assn of Home Builders (NAHB). With more than 12,500 builder-members, HOW has enrolled over two million homes nationwide since its inception in 1974.

Allowed baggage on airlines

by JIM WARNEK, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Can I take my golf clubs with me on my flight to Phoenix? Is there an extra charge for Grandma's wheelchair? If I already have one carry-on bag, can I still keep my camera bag with me on the plane?

Let's start with the most asked question regarding baggage on airlines. How large a bag may I carry on? The key here is that it must fit either under the seat in front of you or in the overhead bin. So, how big is this "overhead bin"? If your bag is no bigger than 9- by 13- by 23-inches, you'll not have a problem. You may also carry on a garment bag, though that limits you to one checked bag. In addition, you may take that camera bag on board with you.

The rules for checked baggage can really get complicated, but I'll try to give you the condensed version.

If you carry on a bag, you can still check two bags. The weight of any single bag may not exceed 70 pounds (that's more than any one of us is going to lug around). The linear inches of the first bag may not exceed 62, and the second not more than 55. Linear inches is the length plus the width plus the height. If you do not carry on a bag, you may also check a third bag whose linear inches does not exceed 45.

That's the basics. Now we'll get to the more unusual items.

A collapsible wheelchair may be checked in addition to the above at no extra charge. You may also check your ski equipment, again at no charge. A golf bag may be checked, but it counts as one of your allowed bags. Also counting as a checked bag is a musical instrument under 39 inches, backpacks and sleeping bags. You may bring back a box of fruit from Hawaii or Florida in addition to your allowed baggage.

You hunters may check firearms, but there are restrictions. They must be in locked, hard-sided bags, and unloaded. Some items which may be checked for a charge are bicycles ($30), scuba equipment ($25), and pets ($25). These prices, as well as everything else, vary by airline.

Protect yourself, learn to spot scams

by CHANING TIMES
THE KIPLINGER MAGAZINE

Sharp-shooting swindlers have always had affluent retirees in their sights. But their target is even bigger these days: More folks than ever have retired with fat annuities and five-figure lump sums. Investment schemes promising profits too good to be true on stocks, bonds and oil wells top the list of come-ons. But callers with high-pressure tactics are using the phones to whip up business in coins, home repairs and work-at-home deals.

Learn to spot the scams, and you'll cut your chances of being taken in. Here are some of the hottest around.

Dangling the karat. Investors lose about $250 million a year in so-called gold ore, one of the fastest-growing con games. Phone hustlers offer, usually for $5,000, 100-ton units of unprocessed dirt, which they call aggregate ore.

Although the ore is guaranteed to contain 20 or more ounces of gold, there's little of the precious metal in it. And the cost of extracting what is there would be out of sight.

Flip side of coins. The Federal Trade Commission says that for many Americans investing in rare coins has become a financial disaster. False grading of supposedly valuable coins is the most common type of fraud. And false claims about the value of coins are widespread.

Tripping up travelers. In one widely used rip-off, con artists sell a "club membership" for up to $400. Buyers get a travel package that includes round-trip air transportation for one person and lodging for two in Hawaii, London or some other exotic place. The catch: You have to buy a high-priced ticket for another person and may end up paying two to three times more than you would on your own.

You can report suspected rip-offs in stocks or other securities to your state securities administrator, the Securities and Exchange Commission (450 Fifth St., N.W., Washington, DC 20459) or the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (2033 K St., N.W., Washington, DC 20581).

Perils of Procrastination:

The early bird gets the retirement goodies on time. That's the message from the experts, who have seen the downside of delay in declaring your intention to call it quits.

Your office retirement plan may offer automatic built-in help. But chances are you'll be on your own in applying for Social Security or Medicare benefits. "We recommend people apply three months before retiring," says the Social Security Administration's Frank Battistelli. A month is usually enough, but why chance a delay in receiving your just desserts?

What you'll need. Your birth certificate (the original or a certified copy), your spouse's birth certificate and your Social Security card.

You'll also be asked for W2 forms for your two most recent federal tax filings. Divorcees are required to submit a copy of the divorce decree. Veterans should bring their discharge papers. And if you want your checks deposited directly into your account, bring a checkbook or savings passbook.

Send for any missing documents well ahead of the benefit-start date. In some places it can take several weeks to get birth and marriage records.

Where to get records. For birth, death, marriage or divorce records, write to the vital statistics office of the state or local jurisdiction where the event took place. Try speeding things up by calling first to find out what information is required and how much it will cost ($4 to $6 per document is typical).

A guide, "Where to Write for Vital Records," is available for $6.50 from the Consumer Education Research Center, P.O. Box 336, South Orange, NJ 07079; (800) 872-0121. The booklet lists the names and addresses of vital-record repositories in all states, the District of Columbia, Guam and Puerto Rico.

Don't put off filing for benefits because of trouble in getting the records. "We'll do a search ourselves if necessary," says Battistelli. Allow enough time and there will probably be no snags. Medicare eligibility begins at 65 whether you retire or not, but to qualify you must file an application.

Worth Getting:

Before you travel, check up on your health coverage. Medicare applies in Mexico and Canada only in emergencies. Blue Cross-Blue Shield plans are generally valid around the globe but you'll have to pay most medical bills out of pocket since few foreign hospitals and doctors bill insurance companies directly.

The International Health Guide for Senior Citizen Travelers (Pilot Books, 103 Cooper St., Babylon, NY 11702; $4.95), a concise, 70-page guide by Johns Hopkins' authority Dr. W. Robert Lange, also lists insurers that sell supplemental travel policies, deals with jet lag and immunization, and gives advice on how to minimize health risks while abroad. (AP)

Retirement - will it be an option?

by NICK J. BROWN

Retirement is always an important financial goal for every family. Even with our moderate inflation rate of 5 percent, the cost of living doubles every 12 years. For example, if $2,500 a month of spendable income is a the window. Our clients want to retire on 100 percent of their current earned income and want this income for life.

If that is your goal, you must start planning right now. The first step in planning is to take this inven-

Many people must continue to work in their retirement years because they have not been able to make proper plans for sufficient retirement income. With the increasing cost of educating children, medical expenses and normal living costs, this is not an unlikely thing. Planning is the key to a successful retirement and, whether you plan or not, those years are marching toward you. Plan now and have a more comfortable and happy retirement later.

reasonable standard of living, a 45-year-old couple's projected retirement based on today's costs in 20 years at age 65 will be $6,633 a month. This will continue to increase each year during the retirement years.

Social Security is only going one way, and that is benefits will be more restrictive, retirement will be later, and there will be a greater chance that any benefit you are entitled to will be offset either by your earnings or investment income.

Another change likely to occur is that in the future, social security benefits will be taxed as ordinary income. This further erodes purchasing power. As the base of workers shrinks and the number of retirees increases due to the graying of America, all of the above changes are fairly certain to take place.

This is a good time to take an inventory of how you plan to fund your retirement. For most people, the menu would go as follows: 1. Social Security benefits; 2. pension plans from employers; 3. 401 (k) (salary deferral plans); 4. salary deduction plans (thrift plans); 5. IRA and Keogh plans if you do not have the above listed employer plans; and 6. personal savings and investment.

You should sit down with a financial planning professional to do projections on what these will provide you at age 65. Due to job changes, pensions are severely cutback. More companies are terminating their pension plans due to overzealous and heavy handed government restrictions and paperwork, thus leaving employees with only the option of funding their retirement for themselves.

As the baby boomers grow older, the old axiom of retiring on 60 percent of your income is going out of tory of pension and retirement benefits and do projections to your desired retirement age, which might be age 60 or 65.

The second step is to get projections from your employer as to what benefits will be available to you if he keeps his plan in place until you retire. Third, you should have projections done on your IRAs, Keoghs or other sheltered savings plans to see what benefits they will provide you in addition to employer sponsored programs.

Fourth, you should get a report, available from Social Security, as to what your benefits might be. I say "might be," because with all of the restrictions now on the drawing board and which have been mentioned previously, no one really knows what your Social Security benefits could be.

Once you have all of these figures, the gap between your desired income and what you actually have can be filled by personal savings and investments. You may have to increase the amount you are allocating monthly to retirement savings in order to reach your goal.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

Dr. Gary L. Rippberger

PROTECTING YOUNG FEET

Young children love to go barefoot. Under certain conditions this is a happy, healthful experience.

However, when children walk barefoot on dirty pavements they risk not only cuts and bruises, but also resulting infections. Plantar warts, for example, are caused by a virus which penetrate the soles of the feet through cuts and other damage to the skin. These warts require long periods of treatment.

Letting children walk on rough surfaces without foot protection risks severe bruises, sprains and fractures.

Be cautious about the use of home remedies on children's feet. Some remedies that are strong enough to kill fungi can harm the skin. Consult the podiatrist promptly if a child develops any foot problems.

Buy A Heat Pump And Receive 3 Thank-You Notes.

It's nice to think of it as a token of our appreciation.

You might prefer to think of it as a rebate.

Either way, now you'll find the advantages of buying a heat pump are almost as great as the advantages of owning one.

After all, a heat pump is the most energy-efficient heating and cooling system available. Designed to work like a central air conditioner in the summer, keeping your home cool.

And work with your furnace in the winter, keeping it warm.

That alone makes it a real value.

But add to that a rebate of $100 per ton of cooling capacity—the average being about 2½ tons, or $250—and a heat pump becomes more than an attractive investment.

It becomes an affordable way to keep your home comfortable, all year long.

Which is something you'll be thankful for.

Bring out the bubbly at those pre-wedding celebrations, too

"Each time a champagne cork pops, a woman laughs." This old gypsy proverb is good to remember when planning a wedding and the myriad activities associated with that special day.

Smiles and gaiety are all-important, so why wait until toasting the newlyweds to break out the bubbly?

Bridal showers, rehearsal dinners and wedding day brunches offer perfect settings for champagne.

Each of these pre-ceremony occasions gathers family and friends from the bride's most intimate circle, bringing together those she cherishes most and wants to acknowledge in a very special way.

Most champagne houses produce several types of champagne. Knowing more about them helps with food match-ups.

• Non-vintage brut: typifies the particular style of the house. Young and fresh, this is a blend of wines from different years.

• Vintage brut: only produced in years when the grape harvest is considered exceptional. It is generally richer and more complex than non-vintage.

• Prestige cuvee: a house's top-of-the-line bottle. Usually a blend of vintage wines, often using grapes from a house's own and finest vineyards.

• Rose champagne: usually vintage champagne to which a small amount of still red wine is added.

• Demi-sec champagne: a slightly sweet dessert champagne.

To add special appeal to a menu, the bride should consider serving two or more of these champagnes during the course of a single meal.

A non-vintage brut is a suggestion with light hors d'oeuvres or appetizer, moving on to the more complex champagnes with a fish course, light meat or game, and a nominally sweet dessert.

Strong spices and garlic should be avoided, as should sharp salad dressings, pungent cheeses and chocolate.

Once you are convinced that only champagne will do, here are some important serving tips to remember:

• Chilling. Place unopened bottle in a nice bucket filled with ice and a small amount of water for 20 to 30 minutes.

Or, refrigerate the bottle for several hours; never put champagne in the freezer.

• Uncorking. Loosen the wire muzzle, then grasp the cork firmly with one hand while rotating the bottle (not the cork) with the other.

Keep your hand on the cork at all times until it gently eases out of the bottle with a barely audible sigh.

• Serving. Pour a small amount of champagne into each glass, allow the froth to settle, then fill glasses 1/2 to 2/3 full.

Use long-stemmed flutes or tulip-shaped glasses, whose slender shapes flatter the rising streams of bubbles and concentrate the aroma.

Tips for perfect wedding day

As you dress on your wedding day, perhaps you'll be surrounded by a flock of attendants. Or perhaps your mother and a single close friend will be with you.

Whatever the case, this distinctly feminine ritual will be among the most precious memories of the entire day.

However slapdash the usual routine, this is a day when everything must be perfect. Taking the time to fuss over your hair, skin and makeup will produce enthralling results.

Wowing that man waiting at the end of the aisle, the one who's seen you at your worst and still loves you, makes it the most fun.

If you're not getting ready at home, make a list the day before the wedding of what is needed. Don't forget extras like cotton swabs and cotton balls for makeup mishaps and touchups.

Hawaiian wedding song beckons to a special hideaway

It all comes together at sunset. Strolling along the pristine sandy beach holding hands, you realize you've found paradise.

Here, on the secluded Kohala Coast on the Big Island of Hawaii, one can become a part of the magic of Polynesia.

Couples come from all corners of the world to wed and honeymoon on the secret shores of one of Kohala's most romantic hideaways, Kona Village.

Resort. In fact, nearly 700 couples have selected this intimate retreat for the special moment since the resort opened 25 years ago.

Against the backdrop of ancient lava flows, lush lagoons and swaying palms, are the plush, thatched-roof "hales" that make up the resort. Its secluded location has protected it from the heavy development found elsewhere in the islands.

When it first opened, Kona Village was a destination only the rich and famous could reach in their private yachts and planes.

Today, access has improved somewhat, but paradise remains the same. You won't see a telephone, television or car on the grounds of this 82-acre tropical village.

Instead, you'll find yourself lounging in a hammock for two, sipping champagne on a private "lanai" or sailing to a secret beach.

When the mood strikes, tennis, snorkeling and outrigger canoeing are included in the stay. Golf, scuba diving and horseback riding are nearby.

Almost every evening at sundown, when the light becomes soft and evening breezes have cooled the sand, the sweet, haunting call of conch shells can be heard as a bride and groom unite to repeat their vows.

All honeymoons include breakfast, lunch and dinner daily, and there are two plans to select from. Packages include four- or seven-night stays, and prices range from $1,842 to $4,197 per couple. It's best to make arrangements well ahead of time, since there are only 125 "hales."

For more honeymoon information, call your travel planner or contact Kona Village Resort at P.O. Box 1299, Kaupuluh-Kona, HI 96745, or call toll-free 1-800-367-5290.

125 SECLUDED THATCHED-ROOF HALES on 82 acres of lush tropical terrain set the stage for wondrous wedding memories at Kona Village Resort, one of the last Hawaiian retreats to retain its true "island" ambience.

Beauty tips

Makeup on your wedding day should be delicate and light, as recommended by Suzanne Gould Maggin, fashion editor of Modern Bride magazine.

When choosing eye and cheek color, Princess Marcella Borghese's new Shadow and Blush Milano collection offers something special for a special day.

"Gems of Italy" are faceted chunks of color available in a palette as radiant as a bride-to-be. The Shadow Milano trio "Opalinos" is subtle and soft-spoken.

Like the opal itself, each "gem" is a combination of luminous white power and striking highlights in pink, green and blue. Says Maggin, "The effect is perfect with the opalescence in many of today's dresses."

Also in the spirit of the day are the three alluring shades of pink that comprise "Innocente," eyecolor as flattering as its name.

Silken-textured and crease-resistant, the shadows perform beautifully.

The camera's eye will follow you faithfully on your wedding day. Even though you may tire of being in the spotlight, your makeup shouldn't.

Blush Milano comes in an array of fifteen moisturizing, long-wearing colors. Muted hues of pink in "Peonia" and "Rosetto" flatter an ivory complexion, while the dusky peach tones in "Pesca" suit olive-tone skins.

The sculpted powders brush on softly, bringing the gentlest of blushes to the check.

Of utmost importance, stresses Maggin, is a dusting of translucent powder over all to set the look and tone down shine, essential for photography.

When your makeup is done, you are ready to slip into your dress. Depending on your gown, you may either step into it, having already placed the slip within, or else draw the gown over your head.

For the latter, suggests Maggin, have a friend help you. She should form a tunnel with the dress, bringing it down over your head as you shimmy in from below.

This process will keep you from spoiling your makeup or soiling the dress.

Indulging yourself on your wedding day is the privilege of the bride, from the gown you'll wear once, to the very time you spend getting ready.

Revel in those elements that separate your wedding day from all others, and you will be a truly beautiful bride.

Fun gifts to spark imagination

What is the perfect gift for today's brides and grooms? Many people immediately think of china, crystal and silver and, while these are always welcome gifts, says Bride's Magazine, the possibilities have expanded to "anything the couple might enjoy."

"Couples marrying now have more defined ideas of what they need for setting up a home," explains Barbara Tober, editor-in-chief of Bride's.

Bride's has this advice for anyone shopping for a wedding present: Find out if the couple has listed their preferences with a wedding gift registry (65 percent of brides and grooms do).

If the couple is not registered, it's a safe bet that they can use extra blankets, towels, linens or a variety of tabletop items and housewares.

If they have a distinct "personality," one of these ideas might fit:

- Gourmets - wine glasses, a wine rack, a wine label scrapbook.
- Exercisers - warm-up suits and leotards, an exercise bike, membership at a health club.

- Travelers - luggage, sunglasses, beach towels, passport wallets, a travel alarm or iron.

- Sailors - floating hardware, deck chairs, a compass, an all-weather radio, a picnic basket for snacks.

- The couple buying a first home - gardening tools, a leaf blower, a lawn mower, a garden sundial, a wheelbarrow, snow shovels, a welcome mat, a bridge table, folding chairs.

Victory opens new mental health unit

Victory Memorial Hospital has added a Mental Health Services Unit to its hospital facility. The unit, which opened last month, provides comprehensive medical and psychiatric care for adult patients suffering from acute mental illness.

The emphasis of the treatment will be to provide patients with a recovery program tailored to their individual needs. According to Dr. Mary Nunchuck, medical co-director of the 30-bed unit, all aspects of an individual's illness will be addressed: physical, emotional, social and spiritual. "We've put together a program we feel is very holistic," Nunchuck said. "One geared to patient as well as family education. Our goal is to thoroughly explore all aspects of a patient's illness so that he or she can function independently over the long term."

Patricia Behling, vice president of Nursing for Victory Memorial, explained that the Mental Health Services Unit was created in response to a growing need in the Lake County area for psychiatric treatment programs.

"This program is unique in that it is the first in Lake County to offer a component designed especially for geriatric patients," Behling said. "In addition, because we are a hospital, we can accommodate patients who require specialized medical attention such as diagnostic testing and medical maintenance of a pre-existing illness," she explained. The Unit is also wheelchair accessible and contains design elements similar to those found in physical rehabilitation units.

The Mental Health Service staff includes two medical co-directors, registered nurses, a psychiatric social worker, mental health workers and an occupational therapist. Group therapy sessions include topics such as goal setting, stress management, sports/exercise, meditation, and arts and crafts.

The program is not designed to handle patients who are assaultive, homicidal, or who require custodial care. Patients must undergo a physical examination by their family doctor or a Victory physician prior to being admitted. For more information contact M. Helen Harris, R.N., patient care director, at (312)360-4082. Victory Memorial Hospital is located at 1324 N. Sheridan Rd. in Waukegan.

Campers doing their part to support recycling

Campers at northwest Lake County's two state parks are doing their part to support a new recycling program.

Supt. Ed Rodick reported visitors are "cooperating nicely" to separate glass and aluminum from refuse generated by the 7,000 to 8,000 persons in Chain O' Lakes State Park and Oak Point State Park on a normal weekend.

The camp staff has an internal project to sort out waste paper.

Rodick said that Phase 2 of a rehabilitation program at the boat launch area is expected to get underway before fall. The project basically involves re-routing land traffic to facilitate launching.

Maintenance personnel are finding an increasing number of dead and damaged trees as a result of the drought last year. Rodick said the damage seems especially acute in "use" areas where campers congregate.

Bonds to finance plant

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

Fox Lake trustees adopted an ordinance authorizing the issuance of up to $22,850,000 in revenue bonds to finance modernization and expansion of the Northwest Lake County Regional Waste Water System.

The bonds will be purchased by the State of Illinois from a special fund earmarked for critical environmentally sensitive projects at the low interest rate of 3.21 percent.

Fox Lake owns and operates the sewage treatment works serving the Fox Lake-Ingleside area, all of Greater Round Lake, the Lakes Regional Sanitary Dist., and will soon add on the Lake Villa area. The system also is designed to serve Antioch in the future.

The state fund is required to finance the project because of the village's heavy indebtedness due to previous waste water treatment projects, one in 1977 with $3.3 million in bonds still outstanding, and the 1986 improvement project with $1,415,000 in bonds still outstanding.

Edward Benjamin, of the municipal bond specialists Benjamin & Lange, referred to the ordinance adoption as the "triggering mechanism" setting the massive public works project in motion.

The 1986 bond issue was for village purchase of the Leisure Village sewage treatment works and construction of a well.

was Karin A. Lawrence.

To graduate Cum Laude, a student must earn a cumulative grade point average of 3.40 to 3.59

Part of the huge construction project will be defrayed by a $2,450,000 federal grant. Fox Lake officials are hopeful of obtaining further grants to reduce bonding requirements.

Trustee Rich Bayne, Fox Lake's representative on the Northwest Regional advisory committee, pointed out at a meeting Monday, July 10, that no property tax monies will be involved in work designed to increase capacity and eliminate odors plaguing Fox Lake residents.

"We'll know the exact amount of the project after bids are submitted. Hopefully, we won't use all of the bonding power," Bayne declared.

The Northwest Regional system combines nine governmental entities through a system of inter-governmental agreements to provide modern sanitation for roughly one-quarter of Lake County. The Lake County Public Works Dept. is one of the participants.

Bayne said the treatment works will be expanded to a nine-million-gallon-per-day capacity that will serve present needs and provide for future growth.

Q. Will video games harm my children's eyes?

A. Actually, video games may help sharpen your children's vision rather than harm it but only if they are played in moderation.

Staring at a video screen for hours on end puts the eyes under great stress. That can lead to headaches, fatigue, blurring vision and, in children and teens, may contribute to nearsightedness.

Played in moderation, however, video games can help sharpen vision skills used in school, on the job and in sports. These include eye movement skills; eye-hand coordination; visual reaction time; visualization; and side vision awareness.

Optometrists don't specify how many hours a day of video game play would be considered moderate play. Instead, they recommend five minute rest breaks for every 30 minutes of play. During rest breaks, players should look at things in the distance.

Walborn wins title

A west suburban engineer who focuses his best sailing efforts on regattas won the 1090 Tri-Lake Regatta sailed at Long Lake.

High Walborn of Willowbrook, racing under Pistakee Yacht Club colors, fashioned a first and second in two races sailed in blustery weather Sunday, July 9 in the 25-year-old event for Pistakee, Long Lake Yacht Club and Powers Lake, Wis. Yacht Club.

Walborn also was in first place on Saturday when judges scrubbed racing for lack of wind.

A fellow PYC skipper, Brian Barr, who always does well in Tri-Lake competition, put together finishes of second and third to take second place in regatta competition. Todd Faulkner of Powers Lake finished fifth in Sunday's opener and then powered his way to a first to compile third place points.

Fourth and fifth places went to the host club's Norm Reese and Tom Cooper, respectively.

Libertyville leads teams to playoffs

Libertyville's American Legion team will lead five legion clubs into the second season when first round playoff action begins July 14.

Libertyville, 15-2 on the year, will host Mundelein, 3-8 in Dist. 10, in the opening round game at Libertyville High School. The game will start at 6 p.m.

"I think we're going in with hot sticks and the fielding is coming around," Libertyville Coach Chris Garrison said.

In other first round games, Waukegan travels to Barrington and Vernon is at Lake Zurich. Wauconda is at Lake Forest to round out Dist. 10 play.

Survivors of the double elimination first round will advance to the final four to be played July 21-23 at Bowen Park in Waukegan.

The Mundelein-Libertyville winner will face the Lake Forest-Wauconda winner July 15. The Barrington-Waukegan winner and the Lake Zurich-Vernon winner will also clash in Saturday morning games.

Libertyville is coming off a split with Dist. 10 archrival Barrington. In almost 90 degree heat Sunday, Libertyville won the first game 7-0 before losing the second contest 9-2.

Pitcher Brad Dodge extended his scoreless hit streak to 25 innings in the first game by firing a three-hitter. He struck out six and walked three.

Barrington's biggest threat came against Dodge in the fifth inning. Steve Rives doubled, and Eric Slaggie walked but Dodge, who also pitches for the College of Lake County, got out of the jam.

Libertyville's bats struck early in the home game.

Andy Forgione singled and Matt Marquardt walked before Dodge poked a pitch over the right-centerfield fence for a three-run homer. Dodge later helped his own cause with a single and scored a run in the fifth inning.

An RBI double by Chris Walsh gave Libertyville a 4-0 lead after two. Libertyville added two runs in the fifth inning and one more in the seventh.

In the second game, Garrison elected to use the contest to give playing time for reserves.

Barrington, which had won 91 percent of its games when seedings were announced before the doubleheader, jumped on three Libertyville pitchers.

Rives continued to lead the way for Barrington. Promoted to the leadoff position, he answered a two-hit first game with a four-hit second game. He scored two of Barrington's runs and also had a stolen base.

The game was tied 1-1 in the fourth before the visitors blew the game open in with a four-run fifth inning.

Libertyville beat its first-round foe Mundelein three times in the regular season.

"We're just looking forward to playing them," Mundelein Coach Ted Munro said.

Mundelein beat Barrington 9-6 in the regular season finale as Jim Cooney of Grayslake picked up the win.

One of the closer matchups of the first round figures to be the Vernon at Lake Zurich game.

Lake Zurich used two big innings and Wauconda errors to record a 10-4 win Saturday at Lake Zurich.

Wauconda had a lead when Joe Powlowick clubbed a three-run homer.

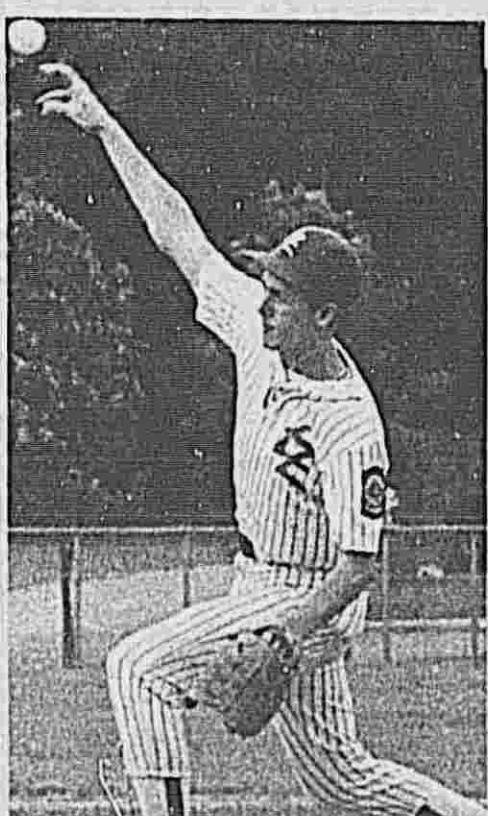

Wauconda committed three errors in the second inning to lead to four Lake Zurich runs. The home team then scored six runs in the third on five Wauconda errors.

"I gave them one hard lecture after the game," Wauconda Coach Chuck Rapier, whose team finished 3-10 in Dist. 10, said.

Lake Zurich's offense was led by Randy Mikusa, who was two-for-three with three RBIs.

Lake Zurich improved to 9-6 overall with a 12-2 win over Villa Park Sunday. Earlier, Lake Zurich was paced by Erick Bruksch's four hits in an 8-2 win over Lake Forest.

"I'm happy with the draw. I think our chances are pretty good," Lake Zurich Manager Ken Anderson said.

Showing concentration

Libertyville American Legion pitcher Brad Dodge, left, and Lake Zurich's Eric Anderson, right, show their form during late regular season games. Libertyville is favorite to contend for Dist. 10 title as post-season play begins July 14. Libertyville faces Mundelein in first-round play July 14 while Lake Zurich hosts Vernon. Tim Cox of Park City won his fifth 20-lap modified main event.

In other races, Dean Winchester of Kenosha became the fourth different driver in the late models as he won his first 25-lap feature of the year. Dave Gall of Antioch won his first 15-lap spectator stock main to become the seventh different feature winner in that division.

Al Schmidt took the lead on the opening lap of the sprint main and held the top

Last track meet

This meet, for ages three and under to 50 and up, will be sponsored by the Waukegan Jaycees. For information, contact Steve Winker at (312) 244-7275. The meet, with a 50 cent entry fee per person, will begin at 5:30 p.m.

Good Shepherd golf meet nets $60,000

The ninth annual Good Shepherd Invitational Golf Benefit, held at Kemper Lakes Golf Club, the site of this year's PGA championship, was the most successful golf outing ever sponsored by the hospital.

Brian Braun, director of development at Good Shepherd, said the net income from the fundraiser exceeded $60,000, a $25,000 increase over last year's benefit. The increase was due to the amount of sponsors that underwrote various costs of the event.

A total of 156 golfers participated in the tournament. Among them was former Chicago Blackhawk defenseman and coach Keith Magnuson.

Tournament winners included Kenneth Friedman (1st low gross), Peter Kroll (low net), Russell Feurer (low net Peoria), Robert Witkowski, M.D. (longest drive), David Joslin (closest to the pin - 17th hole) and Robert Miller, M.D. (closest to the pin - third hole).

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Smith won a one-week trip for two, including airfare, to Waikiki Beach, Hawaii.

spot until the 15th lap. Kristan shot past Schmidt as the pair worked lapped traffic and pulled away to the win in his J&L Oil-Hot Rod Shop Gambler. "We've just been having the car work right for the track. I haven't won three features in a row before," Kristan said.

Gary Dye took the lead in the early going of the modified main, slowed three times for cautions due to various incidents. Cox put his Transmotive-Mid-Town Garage-Bud's Shell and Deli modified in front in lap nine and went on to the victory. "The power steering broke on the second lap. It didn't make it easy, but it sure feels better since we won," Cox said.

Winchester put his Shinck Race Cars-Zinck Machining Camaro in front in the opening lap and held it through a three-lap caution period on lap eight when Ron Hansing's hood flew off on the front straightaway. Skip Martin challenged Winchester and took the lead on laps 23 and 24. Martin collided with a lapped car in turn two in the final lap and was penalized for rough driving at the finish. Ed Devall was in second place behind Winchester, with Ed Devall in second, Chuck Ostergaard of Antioch in third, Mickey Wilson in fourth and Jay Maywald of McHenry in fifth place.

Raymond Hensley led the early going of the spectator stock main with John Poehler going in front in lap eight. Gall retook the lead in his Ring's Radiator-

Vault Restaurant Camaro on lap nine when John Poehler had to hit the brakes to avoid a spinning car. Gall went on to the win, edging runnerup Rob Olsen by less than one car length at the finish. John Poehler, Bobby Giers and Mike Poehler rounded out the top five.

"I didn't know how close Rob was. Last year we missed out the feature challenge, but we're in it again," Gall said.

In point standings as of June 24, Dave Hanna of Grayslake leads in the sprints division with 52 points; Allen Winker had 387, Frank Filsko had 382 and Kristian 382 points.

In the modifieds, Ostrowski has 521 points and Cox, who gained 40 more points with his win, had 502. Winker was third with 500 and Mike Frost had 431 points.

In the late models, Mayweld led with 478 points, Martin had 430, Wilson 410, Jim Gehrig 396 and Devall 386 points.

Spectator stocks were led by Giers with 460 points, Rob Olsen had 452; John Poehler 444; Larry Surleta 429 and Gall had 421 points.

Surleta of Round Lake had earlier secured his second 15-lap spectator stock feature win.

CLC's Gentry: man with many answers

By BRENT KILLACKY

Lakeland Newspapers

In football, jersey numbers infrequently go with one player. They are passed on to another teammate when the old bearer of the number retires.

One thing that is remembered, however, is a player's name. Such a player was Curtis Gentry. This talented defensive back played football from 1966 to 1968 with the Chicago Bears.

Gentry, 51, currently resides in Wildwood and is the associate dean of athletics at the College of Lake County. He is currently involved in the American Coaching Effectiveness Program.

During a break from showing football drills in an ACEP program at CLC's Grayslake campus, Gentry gave his views on ACEP, football and Dick Butkus.

Q: What is ACEP?

A: "It is a program that teaches coaches all over the country who are involved with little league baseball, junior football, with kids anywhere from ages five or six on up to nine or 10 philosophically on how to deal, how to coach this age."

Q: How has football changed from the 1960s to 1980s?

A: "Football has changed very little in my estimation. You won on blocking and tackling and I guess that's the basics. The only major difference that I can see is that there is a lot more activity on the offense. Any you have a multitude of receivers going out (on plays) now as when I was playing back in the late 1960s the most you could get out was two wide receivers, a tight end and maybe a back. Now they have trips where you have three receivers going out and maybe a guy coming out of the backfield, too. But these are the only basic differences that I can see. They are still running the same plays, the same defenses, the same blitzes and the patterns are also basically the same."

Gentry graduated from Maryland State College in 1966 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He went on to earn his masters degree in physical education at Northwestern after he was finished playing football in 1968.

Gentry has coached at Holy Cross College from 1971-72; Northwestern from 1973-75; Alabama A&M University, 1976; North Carolina A&T University in 1977-80 and Lincoln University in 1981. His highlight with the Bears was when he set a team record three interceptions in one game against the St. Louis Cardinals. That mark has been tied only three times in the last two decades.

Q: Who is the player that you admire the most in the NFL today?

A: "Doug Williams (Washington Redskins) is the player I admire the most.

Being black and being a quarterback in the NFL he certainly got there not because of, but in spite of, and he took the Redskins to the Super Bowl.

Q: What can you tell about Butkus?

A: "Off the field Butkus is a quiet, unassuming, shy individual, but put him in a helmet, blow the whistle on a Sunday afternoon and give somebody a football and Butkus turns into a fighting football machine. And, I think if you painted a football on the front of a locomotive and ran it in front of Butkus he would try and tackle it."

Q: How do you think the Bears will do this year?

A: "I think the Bears are going to be a good football team if they get settled on a quarterback and have that quarterback get settled in and the guys on the team get used to him. I think they will have another good football year."

EYE CARE

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By
Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director
Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: Would you please explain to me what a cataract actually is?

ANSWER: A cataract is a clouding of the normally clear lens of the eye. This clouding, a natural aging of the lens in most cases, prevents light from passing through the lens to the back of the eye, or retina. Much like the lens of your camera focuses light on the film, the lens of your eye focuses light on the retina. If the front of your camera's lens becomes dirty or fogged, then the picture taken will be hazy or blurred.
